Greetings,

I was reflecting back recently on one of the changes we have made since opening school. I was thinking of how we couldn't gather in the MPR room (Old gym) and see the students altogether in the morning. But then I began thinking of a positive change and for me, as well as several others, the best part of our day is from 7:25am-8:00am. This is when we see everyone as they arrive at school to begin their day. What a blessing to greet and say good morning to everyone. We are seeing a community each morning as we build relationships, not only with students, but the parents and grandparents. Thank you for your continued patience each morning as you drive up. We are very blessed to be able to have in person learning each day. Have a wonderful weekend, and I look forward to seeing you each morning!

Many blessing,
Mrs. Jones
